Request for license changes of IBM i standard software

After receipt of application and after successful verification of:

» license conditions

» valid software maintenance

» supported release status

menten GmbH will send you a new license key by email.

Please enter the license key after receipt into your software.

Please note that for any changes to the serial number/partition number you will be charged an additional service fee of 350 EUR, unless you have a valid software maintenance contract with menten GmbH.

For detailed information on system requirements and hardware prerequisites for installing and using i-effect® software please visit www.i-effect.com.
